It was stated at the district attorney's office, on excellent authority, that in case bail was offered the district at-torney would ask for the usual forty-eight hours to examine the securities. In the event of Justice Jerome dismiss-ing Molineux on the charge, it was stated he would be immediately rear-rested on the charge of causing the death of Barnet. It was stated that the district attorney had a full and complete line of evidence in the case of Barnet, and with this expected to get an indictment. John H. Sainger.

A warrant was issued yesterday from Justice Sommer's court for the arrest of John H. Sainger, a shoemaker, who lives at 184 Emerson avenue, in the southeastern part of the city. Saniger is charged with interfering with the flow of water in a dich which irrigates the land of Samuel J. Paul, the well-known civil engineer, who dwells at 182 Emerson avenue. Saniger claims that his children were continually falling into the ditch, and he ordered Paul to turn the water off. The latter refused to do so, and Saniger took matters into his own bands and filled the ditch in.

B. Y. COLLEGE GROWTH.

Big Addition to the Grounds-Faculty Chosen, President W. J. Kerr of ty Chosen.

President W. J. Korr of the Brigham Young college at Logan came down resterday to close an important deal. For some time the college has feit the need of more room and negotiations have been going on for the rurchase of the land lying immediately south of the college. Yesterday the deal was consummated and fourteen acres of the land passed into the countrol of the college trustees. President Kerr declined to state the purchase price, but he felt highly eladed over the acquisition of the property, as it will give the college one of the prettiest and most desirable sites in the state. The new land is to be used for an aquarium, horticultural gardens, and a good portion will be reserved for a field for athletic sports.

The trustees held a meeting yesterday and re-engaged the present faculty for next year. The faculty will be greatly sirengthened, however, by the acquisition of Professor Willard Done, heretofore president of the Latter-day Saints' college of this city, who will take the theological chair, and Miss Emma Kewley, the popular kindergarten (cacher of Logan, who will sessist in the gymnasium. Professor D. T. Millor will also be at his post next year after a three years' mission to the Islands of the Pacific.

STORY OF DESPERATE RIDE TO UNEARTH A GORY CRIME

JUST THIRTY YEARS AGO

Thirty years ago yesterday the last spike was driven on the railroad connecting the Atlantic with the Bacilia. It was at Promontory Summit on the northern shore of the Great Sait Lake, fifty-three miles northwest of Orden. On March 8, 1863, the tracklaying of the Union Pacific came within sight of Orden. But the great event of the completion of the Union Pacific was reserved for May 10, 1869, at a place 850 miles east of Sacramento and 1.055 miles west of Omaha. The Union Pacific and Central Pacific met at Promontory Summit. The people began to assemble there at about 8 o'clock in the morning and about an hour later a train came over the Central Pacific loaded with passengers. Two trains came from the cost, their elegant coaches filled with distinguished people. At It lie a. m. Governor Leland Stanford of California came on a special train from the west pulsed by the locomotive Jupiter. By noon there were Libp people present, among them being Governor Leland Stanford, president of the Central Pacific, and a number of other officials of that road; Iresident T. C. Durant and some other preminent officials of the Union Pacific. Governor Safford of Arizona; William Jennings, Colonel T. H. Hoad, Feramorz Little, R. T. Burton, John Sharp, C. R. Savage, Rudolf Alff and other Sait Lakers.

The programme began by Dr. Todd of Massachusetts offering the dedicatory prayer. Dr. Harkness of Sacramento then presented Governor Stanford with a spike made of pure gold.
